NEW GIRL'S BOW

Crusty Men Say It Is Neither a Bob Nor Courtesy.

Assistant Secretary and Mrs. Curtis Give a Dinner-Society Notes and Personals.

And now some singular third person of the musculine gender says the beharte-physical-culture girl has unlearned the way to bow.

There have been skeptics who have doubted the beauty of Venus and the wisdom of Athene, but who would have supposed the cynic breathed who would question the grace of the society girl of teches!

tickay!

He says the new woman acknowledges an introduction with a nondescript-wriggie that is neither bob nor couriesy, and that when she attempts the minuet, every sten is a travesty on the bracaded, powdered and high-needed dames who damed with the cavaliers of their day.

He graciously admits that the very new woman is charable of rediscovering the lost art, but is sare she will never manage it for the reason that it is a self-imposed mission of hers to see how many things she can do at once—and a graceful bow takes time.

she can do at once—and a graceful bow takes time.

It is a pity that the singular person did not take time himselr—time to reflect that he is only a duplicate of Froissart, de Commes and the rest of those musty old wrangiers who naed to thake it fine fun to criticise the graces of the women of their day. If we could get at the first letters Cadmas put together, it is likely we could spell out aggravating things of his about women—and so the only heed the new girl need take of her fellowman's cintrole, is to be profoundly thankful that there is a to word of it true.

There are men and women in Washington society who wouldn't know what to do with these winter evenings if it wasn't for their clubs.

There are, of course, all sorts of gay functions for those whose tastes lie in that direction, and lectures and concerts for those who have conscientious scruples about gay integs galore, but however atomicant such means of relaxation may be, there are yet many people who fail to find in them, a satisfactory grafifying of their social instincts. They have a craving for something more distinctly improving, and that is why we find such multi-tates of Shakespeare, Tennyson and Schiller clubs flourishing in the land.

The entertainment held by the pupils and friends of the Spencerian Business College last evening was a very successful affair. The musical program was furnished by Miss Perkes, Mass Olivia Scala and Miss Asie. A recitation by Mr. Morgan and a reading by Miss Harrison, Mr. Ainsworth R. Spotford gave a very instructive address upon the "Choice of Books for a Home Library."

The address contained much good advice upon the selection and accumulation of a library. This was followed by a vocal solid by Miss Atlee and then the defiate upon the following resolution was well hamiled by the young men and women who tookeither side:

Mount Pleasant Band Was Present. Tonight Will Mark the Close of a Most Successful Enterprise.

Sixth Division A/ with its host of pretty sixth Division A/ with its nost of pretty leachers, was the attraction last night at the Teachers' Bazaar. The Mount Pleasant Field Band, under the direction of Mr. J. C. Churchill, was present and rendered a number of familiar compositions.

Master Alvin Quinter played the cornet in a nost finished manner. His rendition of "The Song That Reached My Heart" brought forth much applaose.

in a most finished manuer. His remainton of "The Song That Reached My Heart" brought forth nauch applaose.

Another feature was the series of fancy dances given by the manifes of Misses Minnie and May Hawke. The first was a flag dance, in which each of the participants was costomed in the American colors. Those who took part were Misses Alonie May O'Toole, Irene Bardine, May Frost, Franke Jones, India King, Louise Kirby, Edna Kingman, May Bode Owen, Marquerite O'Toole, Lizzie Radel, Mary Sheriain and Master Earl Phelps.

Mess Helen Durmi did the cupid dance in a very graceful manner, while Miss Edna Kingman executed a pas de fleur in a most accompishedmismer. The Pleasimay Band was very grotseque and amusing. It was made up of Masters Willie Collier, James O'Toole, Edward Gibbons and Miss Lizzle Radel.

Prof. Donch's orchestra rendered an unusually tuneful and altractive program. The bazaar will close tongent and everything that is not sold when the last beit rings, will be distribated among the various leachers, to be disposed of privately, thus doing away with the antetion which almost invariably marks the closing of a fair.

As predicted excinsively in The Times of Tuesday; the receipts will aggregate $20,000.

HEADGEAR FOR MOURNERS.

Two dainty mourning hats were seen on Brondway the other day. One was a widow's bounet, close fitting and small, frimmed with rosettes of according-plained repediese. The other was a hat of insterness black silk, trimmed with black feathers and a full of white lace.

A Good Recipe for Fruit Cake. A Good Recipe for Fruit Cake.

Two pounds flour, two pounds sugar, three-quarters of a pound of butter, two pounds raisins, two pounds currants, one pound citron, twelve gggs, two teaspoonfuls baking powder, one nutune, one teaspoonful of cloves, ong leaspoonful of clinaminon, two cupfuls of milk, Bake in a slow oven. Care should be taken that the fruit used is absolutely fresh, as on this depends the success of the cake. "Johnstons," the Seventh street grocyts, have the finest lot of currants, raisins and citron in the city, and their goods are all guaranteed to be fresh transportations. Another important consideration is the fact that today "Johnstons" will give a thirty-five day "Johnstons" will give a thirty-five cent sack of flour free to each purchaser of one dollar's worth or over of groceries.

ALEXANDRIA HAPPENINGS.

A movement is on feet in Alexandria, bended by Dr. E. S. Leadheafer, who was for a number of yearschief of the Alexandria fire department, for the purchase of another fire engine to be kept as a reserve engine for use should either of the two engines now in service break down. Dr. Leadheater has caused to be introduced into the city council a resolution directing the board of fire wardens to purchase a third engine, but the matter has been referred to a commuttee and there it rests.

Since the proposition to repair and beau tify the space about the Confederate monument in this city has been advanced by R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans, it has been seceptained that some years ago, cortly after the magament was erected. Capt. Herbert Bryanf, them a member of the board of adternine and chalman of the street committee, had introduced in the council a resolution directing that the city may half of the cost of improvements about the monument if Lee Camp would raise the remaining half. The resolution is to be looked up by the members of the camp, and if it is still effective the city will be called onto supply its part of the funds for the work.

The officers and directors of the German halfding associations were handsamely entertained at a supper last night by Mr. Justus Schneider secretary of the association, in the same Hotel.
